ECRP Submission Checklist

Please consult the following list before submitting your article to Early Childhood Research & Practice to make the reviewing and eventual publication process as smooth as possible.

- □ Paper follows APA style (Sixth Edition) except as noted in Instructions for Authors page.
- □ Reference list follows guidelines in the Instructions for Authors page. These depart slightly from APA style.
- □ Paper has been checked for misspellings, grammatical errors, font irregularities, etc.
- □ One space is used between sentences.
- □ Any tables have been completed in Word using the table function rather than simply using tabs or spaces to line up text.
- □ Any photographs will be submitted as separate files (e.g., .jpg, .tif, .eps) rather than embedded in a Word document. Any other figures or illustrations also will be submitted as separate files (e.g., .jpg, .ai, .eps, .xls).
- □ Any videos will be submitted as separate .mp4 files.
- □ Any audio segments will be submitted as separate files in a format agreed upon with ECRP editors.
- □ Permissions or releases have been secured from study participants and subjects of photographs or videos. However, you do not need to include release forms with your submission.
- □ A corresponding author will be clearly identified with full contact information provided in an e-mail to ECRP (ecrp@illinois.edu) when making the final submission.
- □ The submission includes a title page with a title and complete names and affiliations for all the authors.
- □ One paper copy of the manuscript will be mailed to the following address:
